Notes :

There are fuckin column on the floor.
That column masks the speaker when at center.
We chose position for the front of right side speaker, and aim on the diagonal, too.
Thank you eno my friend taper for clamping and setlist.
I am relieved now, for I am able to deliver this tape.
We Japanese tapers had a hard time very very much to get taping permission.
The cause is in inconsiderate real super stupid businesguys.
Someone, please teach to them.
Human has mind, warm heart, reality.
and, respect for the other when phone.
It is thanks to eno that this tape is here.
He was fighting alone until two days before this show, I joined this fight.
His tape will reach one of these days, too.
I am proud of the share this tape with many Jacket fan.
Thank you My Morning Jacket and crew.
Thank you all.
